Vessel Goes Down 16 Minutes After Explosion

Washington, Aug. 29. (UP)—The 1,589-ton fleet tug U. S. S. Sarsi struck a mine and sank off North Korea Aug. 27 with a loss of two lives, three missing and four seriously injured, the Navy announced today.

Eighty-eight officers and men survived the disaster which sent

Crew Member

George Q. Nader, SA, 29 of Kickapoo, is reported to have been a member of the Sarsi's

He is a brother of Mrs. John Stokowski of 111 Flora ave.

The youth entered the Navy in January and has been aboard the Sarsi about two months.

the Sarst plunging to the bottom the 16 minutes after the explosion. The gi survivors included the commander of of the tug, Lt. William M. Howard 11 of Norfolk, Va.

Survivors were rescued by the minesweeper Zeal and the destroy-fr er Boyd which also were engaged m in operations off North Korea. The th Navy said the accident occurred by off the Communist-held port of in Hung-Nam.

The dead were listed as:

Hampton Curtis Carter, steward to 3/c, husband of Mrs. Hampton C. bc Carter, Chicago, Ill.

Raymond Shirley Parrish, chief ph quartermaster, husband of Mrs. Martha Charmaine Parrish of Chi-in cago and son of Mr. and Mrs. 62, Vernie Leonard Parrish, Route 1, 4,0 Eldorado, Ill.
The missing! .....

Robert Thomas Slattery, radioman 3/c, son of James Thomas

Slattery, Millord, Mass.
Charles Henry Kunsch, Jr., damge control man 1/c, son of Charles Henry Kunsch, Sr., Omaha, Neb. Herbert Elwood Demarest, yeoman 3/c, son of Herbert Gotdon Demárest, Parsippany, N. J. The seriously injured: Warrant Officer Peter Henry Shordt, husband of Mrs. Marjorie Leora Shordt, Nashua, N. H.

Floyd Whellis, Seaman, son of Mrs. Johnnie May Whellis, East cl. St. Louis, III.

on Charles Rene Waite, seaman, son to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur ten Waite, Utica, Mont.

its, Gordon Wayne Scarpaci, yeoman An 2/C, husband of Mrs. Jesse Helen A Scarpaci, Glendale, Cal., and son et of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Scarpaci, tt i is Montrose, Cal.

evia

ge | The sinking brought to 62 the ind number of incidents since the start at of the Korean war in which U. S. his ships have been sunk or damaged by mines, shore fire or other causes. Six ships have been sunk with casualties totalling 143 men killed, 358 wounded and 3 missing. m-All of the vessels sunk have been on tugs or minesweepers, although te several larger vessels have suffered damage.

The most recent incident in-volved the destroyer-minesweeper Ìŕ Thompson which was raked by Communist shore guns off Songjin, Korea, on Aug. 20. Four members of the Thompson's crew were killed and 10 others were wounded.