

12

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION
Washington 25, D. C.

HOLD FOR RELEASE
UNTIL 7 AM (EST)
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1953

U. S. CASUALTIES IN KOREAN AREA (NO. 740)

The Department of Defense today announced the following battle casualties -- killed, wounded, missing -- in the Korean area:

ILLINOIS

KILLED IN ACTION

MARINE CORPS:

Private First Class Edward J. Tomlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isom J. Tomlin, Sr., RR 1, Springfield.

WOUNDED

ARMY:

Private First Class Hershel L. Fortner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fortner, Francisville.

Master Sergeant Louis D. Holzworth, son of William Holzworth, Sr., 7326 South Stewart Ave., Chicago.

MARINE CORPS:

Private First Class John J. Balousek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Balousek, 4153 North Mcvicker Ave., Chicago,

Private First Class George C. Case, son of George W. Case, 217 Butler St., Peoria.

Private First Class Marland J. Cicovsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cicovsky, 2747 West 107th St., Chicago.

Corporal James R. Egan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Egan, 547 Des Plains Ave., Forest Park.

INJURED

ARMY:

Private Ivry F. Smith, husband of Mrs. Zoe Ann Smith, Rural Route 1, Hillsdale.

END